

Who is GEBA?

Government Employees' Benefit Association, Inc., (GEBA) is a nonprofit voluntary employee benefit association founded in 1957 by NSA employees. We are dedicated to helping employees and retirees of the United States Intelligence Community and their families save money on insurance and investments. GEBA benefits are also available to military and contractors assigned to NSA-W.

GEBA's Volunteer Board of Directors

GEBA's over 13,000 members elect volunteers for the Board of Directors as the governing body of GEBA. Directors are active or retired NSA employees.

Advantages/Benefits of Membership

In a financially sound manner, GEBA provides to our members, the following:

- Competitively-priced group insurance plans
- GEMBA (Government Employees' Mutual Benefit Association) investment plans with excellent rates
- Scholarships awarded annually to member's families (provided by the GEBA Scholarship Foundation)
- Free investment consultation and educational seminars
